DESCRIPTION

Located on the edge of the popular Bourne Valley village of Vernham Dean, 66-67 Vernham Row is a stunning three-bedroom cottage of brick and flint elevations under a tiled roof.

On the ground floor there is a large sitting room with a wood burning stove and exposed timbers. Whilst offering great proportions, this charming room also retains a cosy cottage feel. Steps lead up to the kitchen/dining room which has a good range of fitted units and is located at the rear of the property, overlooking the private garden. This room has a lovely, bright feeling throughout and offers a great space in which to entertain. Also on the ground floor are the utility room and cloakroom.

Upstairs there are three double bedrooms, and the principal bedroom has an en-suite WC. All rooms enjoy rural views and the well-appointed family bathroom, with bath and separate shower, completes the first floor accommodation. There is also a sizeable loft offering handy storage space.

OUTSIDE

The cottage sits back from a quiet lane behind hedging, offering great privacy. There is a pretty lawned cottage garden to the front of the property leading up to the front porch.

A small terrace is accessed off the kitchen and steps lead up to the rear garden, which is slightly raised and enjoys magnificent open views over neighbouring farmland. The garden is unusually generous and there is an additional patio area perfect for alfresco dining, from where you can enjoy the peace and tranquillity of this stunning rural location. Laid predominantly to lawn, the garden is flanked by a cottage wall on one side and fencing on the other. There are number of mature trees and shrubs throughout both gardens and a pathway leads all the way to the parking area at the top of the garden.

There is off road driveway parking for numerous cars and a useful double garage, offering great garden / vehicle storage.
