

CORE SECTORS: URBAN REGENERATION

“NOTHING STANDS STILL, WHETHER IN NATURAL SYSTEMS OR IN THE MAN-MADE WORLD, AND ALL COMPLEX URBAN AREAS ARE IN A CONSTANT STATE OF FLUX. HOWEVER, LESSONS CAN BE LEARNED FROM PLACES WHICH HAVE EVOLVED OVER TIME, AND WHICH ARE SUCCESSFULLY ADAPTING TO MEET CHANGING CIRCUMSTANCES”

Making great places from scratch is difficult, as is evident from the multitude of uninspiring new urban environments across the country. Yet, in many ways bringing about the effective urban regeneration of places is even more complicated. The design needs to be right in terms of its physical context, its suitability for local people and its benefit to the economy. Our masterplanning team specialise in creating community-led visions and development frameworks for existing towns and urban areas. Working with public sector bodies. Our experience includes the following projects:
