DESCRIPTION

The Old Cottage is a delightful Grade II listed property, which dates back to the 17th Century, and was significantly and sympathetically extended in the 20th Century to provide over 2,000 sq ft of accommodation. The entrance hall creates a wonderful pivot point to allow access to the drawing room with exposed timbers and is a naturally light room owing to the lattice windows, an intimate and cosy sitting room with open fireplace, similar exposed timbers and double aspect views.

A formal dining room with brick fireplace and ample room for entertaining, giving access immediately to the open plan kitchen/breakfast room, which is fitted with integrated appliances, wooden units and plenty of storage, an adjacent utility room and two doors out to the stunning gardens. There is also a downstairs cloakroom, additional storage space and boiler cupboard.

Upstairs, in the original West part of the property provides the principal bedroom with storage and sink, two further bedrooms and a family bathroom. The east elevation offers another two double bedrooms with a further bathroom.
