DESCRIPTION

Dating back to the 19th Century and of traditional brick construction under a pitched and slate roofline, Red Cottage is an attractive detached cottage that retains and displays a number of period features including open fireplaces with fitted wood burning stoves, together with exposed studwork and ceiling timbers. Considerably improved and updated in recent years the cottage successfully combines period charm with modern influences including a recently refitted kitchen & bathroom suite. Presented in good decorative order, an internal inspection is unreservedly recommended to appreciate the qualities of the home on offer.

AN ATTRACTIVE DETACHED VICTORIAN COTTAGE RETAINING A HOST OF ATTRACTIVE CHARACTERISTICS AND PLEASANTLY SITUATED IN A QUIET HAMLET ON THE PERIPHERY OF THE VILLAGE.

OUTSIDE

Red Cottage stands in a slightly elevated position back from the road approached over a wide gravelled driveway providing extensive off-road parking for several vehicles. South east facing, the rear garden is an attractive feature of Red Cottage with a block paved terrace abutting the side of the garden room, areas of lawn having stocked and raised borders and a path leads to a further paved terrace positioned to take advantage of the afternoon and evening sun. the garden is enclosed by close boarded fencing and an attractive high red brick wall. There is a purpose-built kennel and useful 7m garden shed.
