Spanning over 3,000 square feet, this unique converted former stable boasts high-end living spaces, including a beautifully appointed kitchen equipped with a comprehensive range of integrated appliances, a Quooker tap, and a range cooker. The kitchen features exquisite quartz worktops and an expansive breakfast island, seamlessly flowing into a spacious dining area accentuated by a repurposed original pigeon loft, now an exquisite wine store, and multi-fold doors that lead to a large patio.

The impressive kitchen connects to a generous sitting area centred around a handcrafted natural stone fireplace, creating an inviting atmosphere for entertaining family and friends. Two sets of multi-fold doors open onto spacious patios and beautifully landscaped gardens.

There is a dedicated boot room/utility room which offers ample space for outdoor gear, complete with a sink and provisions for a washing machine and dryer. The elegant stone-tiled inner hallway leads to two ground-floor double bedrooms, one featuring a luxurious ensuite with both a bath and a separate shower, along with an additional wet room. A study, adjacent to the grand entrance hallway overlooking the front courtyard, provides a perfect workspace, with interior access to the expansive garage.

The main solid oak entrance door opens into an impressive high-ceiling hallway, showcasing a repurposed timber stable stall divide and a striking light oak staircase with metal spindles leading to the two luxury upper-floor bedrooms. Each bedroom features a Juliet balcony overlooking the lush front garden and sweeping driveway. The principal suite includes a walk-in dressing area and an impressive ensuite with a slipper bath and separate dual head shower. The second spacious bedroom also benefits from a luxurious ensuite.

Set on approximately one-third of an acre, the beautifully landscaped gardens feature a grassy area with mature trees at the front, a charming gravel driveway that sweeps in and out, and a large fenced lawned formal garden to the side.
